

Household Finance Analyzer

Personal Finance Report — Income, Expenses, Savings & Forecast

Generated on 07 June 2026, 06:37 PM

1. Financial Summary

Metric	Value
Total Income	Rs. 0
Total Expenses	Rs. 0
Net Savings	Rs. 0
Savings Rate	0.0%
Months Covered	N/A
Best Month	N/A
Worst Month	N/A

Savings Health: NEEDS IMPROVEMENT (<10%)

2. Category-wise Spending

The charts below show how your total expenses are distributed across different categories over the analysis period.

[Chart not found: Charts\category_pie.png]

[Chart not found: Charts\category_bar.png]

3. Monthly Trends

Track how your income, expenses, and savings have changed every month. The 20% line on the savings chart is a recommended minimum savings target.

[Chart not found: Charts\trend_line.png]

[Chart not found: Charts\savings_rate.png]

4. Budget vs Actual

Compare what you planned to spend (budget) vs what you actually spent. Red bars indicate budget exceeded.

[Chart not found: Charts\budget_vs_actual.png]

5. Expense Forecast

Based on linear regression over your historical data, next month's predicted total expense is Rs. 0. Your spending trend is STABLE with an average monthly change of Rs. 0.

0.

[Chart not found: Charts\forecast.png]

6. Savings Goals

No goals set yet. Add goals via the CLI menu.

0.

[Chart not found: Charts\goals_progress.png]

6. Spending Health (50-30-20 Rule)

The 50-30-20 rule recommends: 50% on Needs, 30% on Wants, 20% on Savings. Green bars are within limits; red bars need attention.

[Chart not found: Charts\spending_health.png]

7. Smart Recommendations

Based on your spending patterns, here are personalised tips to improve your financial health:

Great job! No critical recommendations at this time. Keep maintaining your spending discipline.